W2IRED invites applications for

Merit-based ‘WAY IN NETWORK’ Bursary $5,000
to undertake a voluntary WHO residency in Geneva in 2020

Successful candidate will spend a minimum of two months working for WHO headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland

- A framework for working in global health that can enhance their education experience and knowledge through practical assignments
- Exposure to epidemiological health research of high standard
- A global perspective for potential career in Obstetrics and Gynaecology or Paediatrics

Essential Criteria

- Be enrolled in a Medical degree at a university or equivalent institution leading to a formal medical qualification
- Research track record as publication and conference presentation
- Have not previously participated in WHO’s Internship Program
- Demonstrated interest in obstetrics (for medical candidates)

Desirable Criteria

- Interested in global health
- Familiarity with epidemiology and biostatistics
- Intension to peruse a medical career in WSLHD

How to apply:
Please send your CV and a one-page cover letter indicating how you meet each criterion to WSLHD-W2IRED-Research@health.nsw.gov.au

Applications close at 12pm on Friday 29th November 2019