Fact sheet #2: What does a Consumer representative do?

Types of activities include:

- Attends workshops and forums with key health staff
- Participates in a wide range of health related committees
- Member of monthly WSHLD Consumer Council
- Provides feedback on health literature
- Undertakes relevant health and consumer training
- Actively participates in health planning and redevelopment discussions
- Operates at a high level with staff

Who do I contact?

Ring the Community and Consumer Engagement team
M: 0418 186 829 or email Dr Coralie Wales on coralie.wales@health.nsw.gov.au