

For more copies of this CD contact
Women's Health at Work on 9840 3877 or 9840 4182

For more information visit www.dhi.gov.au

Sudanese Arabic

Women's Health at Work
Improving the health of working women from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds

The NSW Ombudsman: Who are they and what do they do

The Ombudsman is an independent and impartial organisation/person who investigates complaints about NSW government departments, statutory authorities and local governments.

This CD gives you general information and explains the process on how to make a complaint to the Ombudsman.