

Education Grand Rounds—Virtual Series

Westmead Precinct Education Hub Grand Rounds is a series of sessions focusing on education and teaching in the health environment. These sessions present innovative and emerging teaching models, programs and research to enhance the knowledge and skills of anyone providing education at Westmead precinct.

Monday 15th February

“Delivering education during a pandemic: What we learned and what have we done, examples from Westmead Precinct”

Monday 15th February 2021 : 12md—1pm

Session Title	Presenter
Don't Go Breaking My Heart(s): Enhancing the teaching of paediatric cardiology using 3D-printed models of congenital heart disease	Dr Jack Luckford (SCHN)
Online Faculty Development: Clinical Teacher Training program	A/Prof Annette Burgess (USyd)
Offering the NSW Health : Health Leadership Program, virtually	Elizabeth (Liz) Lyon (SCHN)
This is NOT a Simulation: Preparing for a Pandemic	Caleb Lapointe & Dr Christine Lau (SCHN)

Register for 15th February 2021:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZl0f-6vqD8oGNP3i9bfkH-Kv2bn8Rizv-mf>

For Information contact Monica Hughes:

monica.hughes@health.nsw.gov.au

0417058806